Message from the Pastor:

Today, We Remember. 15 years ago today our world changed.

On September 25th, 2015, Pope Francis visited the Ground Zero Memorial in New York. Afterwards, the Pope headed below ground to the National September 11th Museum for an interfaith meeting that was attended by twelve religious leaders including a Rabbi and an Imam. In his address, Pope Francis said Ground Zero was a place where “we shed tears” when thinking of those who were victims of “a mindset which knows only violence, hatred and revenge.” This is a place, he continued, where “we weep out of a sense of helplessness in the face of injustice, murder and the failure to settle conflicts through dialogue.”

Yet, Pope Francis went on. “This place of death became a place of life too, a place of saved lives, a hymn to the triumph of life over the prophets of destruction and death, to goodness over evil, to reconciliation and unity over hatred and division.

It is a source of great hope that in this place of sorrow and remembrance I can join with leaders representing the many religious traditions which enrich the life of this great city. I trust that our presence together will be a powerful sign of our shared desire to be a force for reconciliation, peace and justice in this community and throughout the world. For all our differences and disagreements, we can live in a world of peace. In opposing every attempt to create a rigid uniformity, we can and must build unity on the basis of our diversity of languages, cultures and religions, and lift our voices against everything which would stand in the way of such unity. Together we are called to say “no” to every attempt to impose uniformity and “yes” to a diversity accepted and reconciled.

This can only happen if we uproot from our hearts all feelings of hatred, vengeance and resentment. We know that that is only possible as a gift from heaven. Here, in this place of remembrance, I would ask everyone together, each in his or her own way, to spend a moment in silence and prayer. Let us implore from on high the gift of commitment to the cause of peace. Peace in our homes, our families, our schools and our communities. Peace in all those places where war never seems to end. Peace for those faces which have known nothing but pain. Peace throughout this world which God has given us as the home of all and a home for all. Simply PEACE.

In this way, the lives of our dear ones will not be lives which will one day be forgotten. Instead, they will be present whenever we strive to be prophets not of tearing down but of building up, prophets of reconciliation, prophets of peace.”

As Pope Francis asked a year ago today, I, too, join everyone in spending time in prayer for PEACE in our homes, our families, our schools, our communities, our country and our world.

God Bless You.

Fr. Jacek

"Prayer: The Faith Prayed"

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 18, 2016 and will focus on the theme "Prayer: The Faith Prayed." Those who the Community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

Next Sunday our parish will join Catholic parishes across the country in celebrating Catechetical Sunday with a commissioning of catechists at the 6:00 PM Mass. Please join us in sincere gratitude for our catechists who volunteer to share their faith with our children. May God bless their efforts, and yours, all through the year!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Adults who wish to become members of the Catholic Church are invited to begin the R.C.I.A. process Those who are unbaptized will undergo a process of instruction and spiritual formation. Catholic adults at least 18 years of age by April 2017 who have not received their First Communion or Confirmation are also welcome to this one-year process.

There will be a "Mass for Seniors" on September 15 at 12:00 Noon followed by a light reception.

Interested?

We look forward to seeing you there.

National Grandparent's Day September 11, 2016

is a secular holiday celebrated to honor grandparents for their contribution to our lives. As the number of grandparents continues to grow so does the impact they make on the lives of their grandchildren. The official flower of the U.S. National Grandparents Day is the forget-me-not. The official song of the U.S. National Grandparents Day is "Song for Grandma and Grandpa" by Johnny Prill. www.calender-12.com.

Use your cell phone, smart phone, laptop, etc. to get the answer to this month’s question:

“What is a Sacramental?”

Go to www.Catholic.org, click on Catholic online, type in your question and hit Search for the answer.

FYI: the answer to August’s question, “What is the church’s stand on immigration?” is:

Pope Francis says the Church must extend help to immigrants “so all may be treated as children of God”. The Church must especially help those fleeing violence, oppression and poverty.
